Thank you for your interest in the Innocence Project. The Innocence Project is a national litigation and public policy organization dedicated to exonerating wrongfully convicted individuals through DNA testing and reforming the criminal justice system to prevent future injustice.

The Innocence Project ONLY considers cases that are:

- 1. Postconviction the trial and direct appeal are over and final.
- 2. There is physical evidence that, if subjected to DNA testing, will prove that the defendant is actually innocent. This means that physical evidence was collected for example blood, bodily fluids, clothing, hair and if that evidence can be found and tested, the test will prove that the defendant could not have committed the crime. Examples of crimes where biological evidence can prove innocence include sexual assaults, homicides, assaults with close physical contact or a struggle and some robberies where physical evidence was collected that was worn by or in contact with the actual perpetrator.
- 3. The defendant must have been convicted of a crime. We do not review claims where the defendant was wrongfully suspected, arrested or charged, but not actually convicted.
- 4. The crime occurred in the United States, but not in: Arizona, California, Illinois, Michigan, or Ohio. Our intake is currently closed to these states. Please write to the local innocence organizations in those States for assistance.

The Innocence Project does NOT review claims where DNA testing cannot prove innocence and does not handle the following types of cases:

- 1. Consent / Transaction: The defendant claims that there was no crime because the victim consented to the events (e.g. agreed to sex) and/or received some form of payment in exchange for the activity (e.g. prostitution, drug transaction)
- 2. Self-defense / Justification: The defendant admits to causing the injury/death but believes the acts were justified cause the defendant acted in self-defense or to protect other people.
- 3. Sustained Abuse: The defendant is accused of crime against the victim(s) that happened more than once and over a period of time (e.g., allegations of long-term sexual abuse of a family member).
- 4. Illegal Possession / Distribution of any controlled substance: The defendant is only challenging a possession or distribution charge.
- 5. RICO / Hobbs Act: The defendant has been charged under the RICO or the Hobbs Act.
- 6. DWI or DUI: The defendant was convicted of driving while intoxicated (DWI) or driving under the influence (DUI).
